Karen Hsiao Savage : Praised as a "tour de force" (Santa Barbara News-Press), for the "breathtaking beauty and pure lyricism" of her playing (Le Soleil, Vancouver), and for her "fearless performance" (The Straits Times, Singapore) Karen Hsiao Savage is Associate Professor of solo and collaborative piano at Washington State University. She completed a doctoral and two master's degrees at Juilliard as a Starr Doctoral Fellow on full scholarship. Karen has performed as collaborative pianist with the Perlman Music Program in Shanghai and New York, and in such venues as Carnegie Hall's Weill Hall, Merkin Hall, Alice Tully Hall, and The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center's "Inside Chamber Music," and recently as a soloist and chamber musician with the Spokane Quartet. Her piano duo 88SQUARED with husband Jeffrey Savage, won the Ellis Duo Piano Competition, the Abild Prize in American Music, Artists International Competition, and second prize and a special mention award at Concours Grieg International Piano Competition in Oslo. The duo recorded Lowell Liebermann's complete two-piano works at the invitation of the composer, and gave critically acclaimed international premieres of his Sonata for Two Pianos. Karen's students have been recognized at state and regional competitions and have been offered competitive scholarships and graduate assistantships at major programs across the country. She is in high demand as a presenter, adjudicator, and guest teacher. Recent performances, masterclasses, and presentations include those at MusiQuest National Festival (India), Ho Chi Minh Conservatory (Vietnam), Yong Siew Toh Conservatory (Singapore).
